

FIVE KILLED IN RIOT WITH I. W. W.

Forty Injured in Battle Between Sheriff's Posse and Workers Leaving Boat.

EVERETT, Wash., Nov. 6.—At least five were killed and forty injured Sunday in a fight at the Everett city wharf between 250 members of the Industrial Workers of the World, who came here from Seattle on the steamer Verona and a posse of 150 citizens headed by Sheriff Don McRae. Sheriff McRae is among the seriously wounded.

The number of casualties aboard the Verona is not known. After the shooting in which about one thousand shots were exchanged, the Verona turned around and started back to Seattle. Many men were seen to fall on the deck of the steamer and others, panic-stricken, jumped overboard. Some were taken from the water but others disappeared and it is believed they were drowned.

The Verona reached Everett shortly before two o'clock. Citizens of Everett at a meeting Saturday night had planned to meet the invaders and deny them privilege of landing. When the Verona reached the city wharf, Sheriff McRae, who was backed by a posse of deputy sheriffs and citizens informed the men on the boat they would not be permitted to land. One of the men, evidently spokesman for the party, began arguing with the sheriff and then made a speech.

Open Fire on Posse. Apparently as a signal, the men dropped his hand and armed men on the steamer opened fire on the posse assembled on the wharf.

The first man to fall was Sheriff McRae, seriously injured. One man was killed instantly and in a moment the crowd on shore was panic-stricken. Deputy sheriffs on the wharf rallied their forces, however, and returned the fire of the invaders on the Verona.

Men on the wharf and on the boat were seen to fall and the Verona immediately backed out of the dock and started back toward Seattle. The trouble between the Industrial Workers of the World and the authorities at Everett has been on for several months and was the outgrowth of a strike of shingle weavers here.

PHILIPPINE HERO'S NAME IS PERPETUATED

Personal Belongings of Maj. Gen. Lawton Placed in National Museum in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—The name of Major Gen. Lawton, famed in the annals of the American army from the time he entered the service as a volunteer in 1861 until he fell in the Philippines in 1899, has now been perpetuated in the National museum here by a large collection of his personal belongings intimately connected with his military career. Among the relics are a congressional medal of honor awarded him for his gallantry in leading a charge of skirmishers against the enemy's rifle pits in front of Atlanta, two service swords used in the Civil war, a pair of Mexican shoes he wore when trailing the Apaches, and a dress sword and scabbard owned by him during the Spanish-American war, together with the flag of the eighth army corps flown at his headquarters in the Philippines.

3,348 CIVILIANS KILLED

BERLIN (by wireless to Sayville, N. Y.) Nov. 6.—Entente allied artillery and fire and bombs dropped from aeroplanes have caused 3,348 casualties among civilians in the districts of France and Belgium occupied by the Germans since the war broke out, according to a compilation made by the Overseas News Agency.

HERE IS WILSON'S FINAL WORD ON THE CAMPAIGN.

LONG BRANCH, N. J., Nov. 6.—Pres't Wilson Sunday night wired his final word of the campaign to the men who have worked to bring about his re-election. The telegram, sent to every state and county chairman in the country, follows:

"I thank you heartily for the splendid work done by you and by all the workers in the cause of progressive principles at issue in this campaign.

"The fight is won! I fully believe; though I take this means of urging you to renew exertions and vigilance to see that belated efforts to confuse the public judgment do not succeed.

"Our country is prosperous, secure and happy; and its prosperity is upon a sound basis. Steps to protect our commerce and industry in any emergency after the European war ends have been taken. The anti-dumping clause of the so-called war revenue act provides the executive with ample power to prevent dumping upon us of Europe's surplus manufactures on our markets. The tariff commission will shortly be appointed and at work to provide the facts which will determine what other legislation is necessary or desirable. I need not add that the federal reserve act is a guarantee against panics and the federal trade commission, will aid, as it already has helped, to preserve the stability of our domestic and foreign commerce.

"I am confident that the time has passed in America when votes can be bought, the ballot box defiled by corrupt practices, or the judgments of the American people determined or influenced in any way by the use of money. It is, however, our duty to take every precaution lest conscienceless agents of the sinister forces working in opposition to progressive principles and popular government resort in their desperation to industrial coercion or to the evil and insidious practices of a decade or more ago."

Poland Made Free Nation Again By Central Powers

BERLIN, Nov. 6. (By wireless to Sayville).—"Polish provinces occupied by troops of the central powers," says the Overseas News Agency, "were the scene Sunday of a great and momentous historic event, Germany and Austria-Hungary by joint action proclaimed Warsaw and Lublin the kingdom of Poland and re-established the right of the Polish nation to control its own destinies, to live an independent national life and to govern itself by chosen representatives of the nation.

"A few days ago, a Polish delegation had called upon the imperial chancellor, Herr Von Bethmann-Hollweg. Its members were representative Poles of all classes, all parties, all ranks of society and all creeds. They transmitted to the German government the wishes of the Polish nation which now have been granted to them.

Resurrected For New Life. "Thus the ancient kingdom of Poland from which in the past came famous rulers like the Jagellones, (a dynasty founded by Jagello, which reigned in Poland from 1386 to 1572) and glorious soldiers like the great Sobieski (John III, king of Poland in 1674-1696) is now resurrected to new life. The Poles are free from Russian oppression; no more to be trodden under the heels of the Cossack. The liberty that had been destroyed a century ago on Russian instigation now is restored. The rule of the knout has been abolished. "Poland has been given back to western civilization." The semi-official Norddeutsche Zeitung prints a leading article entitled "Poland's Hour of Fate," stating that "a hundred years ago as the result of the congress at Vienna Poland's fate went into the hands of Russia but that now Poland's freedom is inseparably linked together with the victory of Germany and her allies."

Yale, 6; Princeton, 6; Army, 6; Pittsburgh, 5; Brown, 5; (tied). Three of the five teams are to clash later in the season. The Yale-Brown match next Saturday will eliminate one of the two. In all likelihood, while the Yale-Princeton affair on the 18th may act as a knockout for the hopes of one or the other.

SHOW OPEN SATURDAY

International News Service: NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Although Walter W. Ryeroff, president of the English Hackney Horse society, will be the only exhibitor from abroad at this year's horse show, which opens next Saturday at Madison square garden, the number of foreign horses, not counting Canadians, promises to be the largest ever seen at the national or any other American show.

Harness classes in particular are swarming with imported horses, chiefly hackneys brought over from England by wealthy American horse fanciers who could not find what they wanted at home. Among 192 entries in 1916 open harness classes 94 or exactly 50 per cent are imported horses.

That The Voters May Know

Pre-election Talk Number Seven

Presenting a Final Thought to the Voters of St. Joseph County and To All Whom This Message May Reach Before Their Ballots Are Cast On Election Day

With one of the most notable campaigns in the history of the country practically closed and with the time for voting at hand, I feel, as one most deeply concerned in the outcome, that I will be pardoned for making this, the last, appeal to those who hold in their hands my destiny and the fate of the Republican ticket in its entirety.

Naturally my inclination would be to urge the voting of the Republican ticket by all those who will cast a ballot, but that cannot be expected. To those who have decided to give their support to the Republican party I would urge voting the ticket straight. Possibilities of making mistakes enter into voting a "mixed" ticket, but if one's conscience so dictates, that is the thing for him to do.

Finally, centering this appeal down to the point where my own interests are to be considered I would ask that my request for your vote be not overlooked and that you carry into the booth with you the remembrance of the manner in which I have sought to solicit your support. If my campaign has been conducted along the lines that appeal to the fair-minded I believe I am justified in believing you will give me that support.

My promise, made at the outset of the campaign, is to give to the office a business administration. My ability and business experience will enable me to fulfill that promise. Should I become the next treasurer of St. Joseph county no one, whether he helped make me the treasurer or not, will have any regrets to nurse or apologies to make.

Go to the polls on election day. Be sure to go and by all means go early. Don't delay but vote as early as you can and see to it that others do likewise. My appreciation of all that has been done in my behalf is hereby expressed in advance of the results. I rest my case with the voters and hope they may decide that I shall be the duly elected treasurer of St. Joseph county.
